Announcements

➤ After today's Divine Liturgy we'll hold a Ministry Fair which will present the numerous things that happen to make our parish special. During it, you'll receive a bird's eye view of all the wonderful things that happen and *can* happen in our parish. And this is your invitation! We need your God-given talents to grow our parish. Please carefully consider the needs and vision of our parish and how you can plan an important role in making it all happen!

➤ Slavic Food Fest Basket Raffle: Festival Basket update: THANK YOU! to everyone promising to contribute to our basket raffle! We have beautiful baskets and gift cards too. There's always room for more! We asked . . . and you answered! Your generosity will be a great success at the Festival. Come see the generous raffle choices. We'll see you on October 8th! Your committee: Lindy Hamilton and Suzy Polny

➤ Congratulations to Reader James Wargo and Danielle Bartko who have been appointed as our new parish Choir Directors beginning on Saturday, October 1. James and Danielle will share the all their duties including preparing the music for our Divine Services, directing the main services, conducting rehearsals, and recruiting new members. We're thankful for their talents and leadership and look forward to the fruits of their labors for years to come! May God richly bless them in their work.

Slavic Food Fest on Saturday, October 8 11a-7p!

Church School This Week

Today's Lesson: Stephen and the Early Church

Questions to ask/review:

- How did the Christians of the early church live? (lived together and sold possessions)
- Why did the apostles decide to ordain 7 deacons? What jobs did they do?
- Who was Stephen? Why was he arrested?
- Stephen was the first martyr. What does this mean?
- Describe the arrest, trial, and death of Stephen.
- How was Saul (the future apostle Paul) involved in this event?

Suggested Activities at home:

- Read the story of Stephen in Acts 6 and 7.
- Encourage your child to consider situations when they could stand up for Christ as Stephen did.
- Remind your child of family members or friends who have fell asleep in the Lord.

Prayer: Lord give us the courage and faith of St. Stephen. Amen.

After this the holy child read without difficulty and understood the contents of books. He became immersed in prayer with a special fervor, not missing a single church service. Already in childhood he imposed upon himself a strict fast. He ate nothing on Wednesdays and Fridays, and on the other days he sustained himself on bread and water.

Hymns and Readings for Sunday, September 25

Tone 6 Troparion (Resurrection)

The Angelic Powers were at Thy tomb;
the guards became as dead men.
Mary stood by Thy grave,
seeking Thy most pure body.
Thou didst capture hell not being tempted by it.
Thou didst come to the Virgin, granting life.
O Lord, Who didst rise from the dead,//
glory to Thee.

Tone 4 Troparion (St Nicholas)

You appeared to your flock as a rule of faith,
an image of humility, and a teacher of abstinence.
Because of your lowliness heaven was opened to
you!
Because of your poverty riches were granted to
you!
O holy Bishop Nicholas,
pray to Christ our God to save our souls.

Tone 4 Troparion (St. Sergius of Radonezh)

A zealot of good deeds
and a true warrior of Christ our God,
thou didst struggle greatly against the passions
in this passing life;
in songs and vigils and fasting thou wast an image and example to thy disciples,
thus the most Holy Spirit lived within thee,
and thou wast made beautiful by His working.
Since thou hast great boldness before the Holy Trinity,
remember the flock which thou hast wisely gathered,//
and do not forget to visit thy children as thou hast promised, venerable Sergius, our father!

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.

Tone 6 Kontakion (Resurrection)

When Christ God, the Giver of Life,

raised all of the dead from the valleys of misery
with His mighty hand,
He bestowed resurrection on the human race.//
He is the Savior of all, the Resurrection, the Life, and the God of all.

Now and ever and unto ages of ages. Amen.

Tone 6 Kontakion of the Theotokos

Steadfast protectress of Christians,
constant advocate before the Creator,
do not despise the cry of us sinners,
but in your goodness come speedily to help us
who call on you in faith.
Hasten to hear our intercessions and to intercede for us, O Theotokos
For you always protect those who honor you.

Tone 6 Prokeimenon (Resurrection)

O Lord, save Thy people, / and bless Thine inheritance! (Ps. 27:9a)

Epistle of the Sunday (2 Corinthians 4:6-15)

For it is the God who commanded light to shine out of darkness, who has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

But we have this treasure in earthen vessels,
that the excellence of the power may be of God and not of us. We are hard-pressed on every side, yet not crushed; we are perplexed, but not in despair; persecuted, but not forsaken; struck down, but not destroyed— always carrying about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life of Jesus also may be manifested in our body.
For we who live are always delivered to death for Jesus' sake, that the life of Jesus also may be manifested in our mortal flesh. So then death is working in us, but life in you.

And since we have the same spirit of faith,
according to what is written, “I believed and therefore I spoke,” we also believe and therefore speak, knowing that He who raised up the Lord Jesus will also raise us up with Jesus, and will present us with you. For all things are for your sakes, that grace, having spread through the many, may cause thanksgiving to abound to the glory of God.

Gospel of the Sunday (Luke 5:1-11)

So it was, as the multitude pressed about Him to hear the word of God, that He stood by the Lake of Gennesaret, and saw two boats standing by the lake; but the fishermen had gone from them and were washing their nets. Then He got into one of the boats, which was Simon's, and asked him to put out a little from the land. And He sat down and taught the multitudes from the boat.

When He had stopped speaking, He said to Simon, “Launch out into the deep and let down your nets for a catch.”

But Simon answered and said to Him, “Master,
we have toiled all night and caught nothing;
nevertheless at Your word I will let down the net.” And when they had done this, they caught a great number of fish, and their net was breaking. So they signaled to their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both the boats, so that they began to sink. When Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, “Depart from me,
for I am a sinful man, O Lord!”

For he and all who were with him were astonished at the catch of fish which they had taken; and so also were James and John, the sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon.
And Jesus said to Simon, “Do not be afraid. From now on you will catch men.” So when they had brought their boats to land, they forsook all and followed Him.

Communion Hymn

Praise the Lord from the heavens, praise Him in the highest! (Ps. 148:1) The righteous shall be in everlasting remembrance! He shall not fear evil tidings! (Ps. 111:6) Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

Childhood of St Sergius

Once, his father sent Bartholomew (St Sergius' name in childhood) out after the horses in the field. Along the way he met an angel sent by God under the appearance of a monk. The Elder stood at prayer beneath an oak in a field. Bartholomew approached him, and bowing, waited for the Elder to finish praying. The monk blessed him, gave him a kiss and asked what he wanted.

Bartholomew answered, “With all my soul I want to learn reading and writing. Holy Father, pray for me to God, that He may help me to become literate.” The monk fulfilled Bartholomew's request, offering up his prayer to God. In blessing the child he said to him: “Henceforth, my child, God gives you to understand reading and writing, and in this you will surpass your brothers and peers”

Then the Elder took a vessel and gave Bartholomew a piece of prosphora. “Take, child, and eat,” said he. “This is given to you as a sign of the grace of God, and for the understanding of Holy Scripture.” The Elder wanted to leave, but Bartholomew asked him to visit at the home of his parents. His parents received their guest with joy and offered him their hospitality.

The Elder replied that it was proper to partake of spiritual nourishment first, and he bade their son to read the Psalter. Bartholomew began to read, and his parents were amazed at the change that had occurred with their son. In parting, the Elder prophetically said of Saint Sergius, “Your son shall be great before God and the people. He shall become a chosen habitation of the Holy Spirit.” (continued above...)
