"The purpose of the incarnation is to establish full communion between God and humanity so that in Christ humanity may find adoption and immortality, often called 'deification' by the Fathers: not by emptying human nature but by fulfilling it in the divine life, since only in God is human nature truly itself." -Olivier Clement

Your Value

Why then, man, are you so worthless in your own eyes and yet so precious to God? Why render yourself such dishonor when you are honored by him? Why do you ask how you were created and do not seek to know why you were made?

Was not this entire visible universe made for your dwelling? It was for you that the light dispelled the overshadowing gloom; for your sake was the night regulated and the day measured, and for you were the heavens embellished with varying brilliance of the sun, the moon and the stars. The earth was adorned with flowers, groves and fruit; and the constant marvelous variety of lovely living things was created in the air, the fields, and the seas for you, lest sad solitude destroy the joy of God's new creation.

And the Creator still works to devise things that can add to your glory. He has made you in his image that you might in your person make the invisible Creator present on earth; he has made you his legate, so that the vast empire of the world might have the Lord's representative. Then in his mercy God assumed what he made in you; he wanted now to be truly manifest in man, just as he had wished to be revealed in man as in an image. Now he would be in reality what he had submitted to be in symbol.

And so Christ is born that by his birth he might restore our nature. He became a child, was fed, and grew that he might inaugurate the one perfect age to remain for ever as he created it. He supports man that man might no longer fall. And the creature he had formed of earth he now makes heavenly; and what he had endowed with a human soul he now vivifies to become a heavenly spirit. In this way he fully raised man to God, and left in him neither sin, nor death, nor travail, nor pain, nor anything earthly, with the grace of our Lord Christ Jesus, who lives and reigns with the Father in the unity of the Holy Spirit, now and for ever, for all the ages of eternity. Amen. (St Peter Chyrsologus)

St Nicholas Church will strive to glorify God through Orthodox Christian worship, sincere love and care for one another, and service to those in need around us.

Hymns and Readings for Today

Troparion of the Resurrection Tone 6

The angelic powers were at Thy tomb;
the guards became as dead men.
Mary stood by Thy grave,
seeking Thy most pure Body.
Thou didst capture hell,
not being tempted by it.
Thou didst come to the Virgin granting life.
O Lord who didst rise from the dead, glory to Thee!

Troparion of the Feast Tone 4

Thy Nativity, O Christ our God,
has shone to the world the light of wisdom!
For by it, those who worshipped the stars,
were taught by a star to adore Thee,
the Sun of righteousness,
and to know Thee, the Orient from on high.
O Lord, glory to Thee!

Troparion of the Righteous Ones Tone 2

Proclaim the wonder, O Joseph,
to David, the ancestor of God;
you saw a Virgin great with child;
you gave glory with the shepherds;
you worshipped with the Magi;
you received the news from the Angel.
Pray to Christ God to save our souls!

Kontakion of the Righteous Ones Tone 3

Today godly David is filled with joy;
Joseph and James offer praise.
The glorious crown of their kinship with Christ fills
them with great joy.
They sing praises to the One ineffably born on earth,
and they cry out: "O Compassionate One, save
those who honor You!"

Kontakion of the Feast Tone 3

Today the Virgin gives birth to the Transcendent
One,
and the earth offers a cave to the Unapproachable
One.
Angels with shepherds glorify Him;
the Wise Men journey with the star,
since for our sake the eternal God was born as a little Child!

Prokeimenon of the Sunday Tone 6 (Ps 27/28:9)

O Lord, save Thy people, and bless Thine inheritance!

Prokeimenon of the Feast Tone 4 (Ps 67/68:35)

God is wonderful in His saints, the God of Israel.

Epistle of the Sunday (Gal 1:11-19)

But I make known to you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached by me is not according to man. For I neither received it from man, nor was I taught it, but it came through the revelation of Jesus Christ.

For you have heard of my former conduct in Judaism, how I persecuted the church of God beyond measure and tried to destroy it. And I advanced in Judaism beyond many of my contemporaries in my own nation, being more exceedingly zealous for the traditions of my fathers.

But when it pleased God, who separated me from my mother's womb and called me through His grace, to reveal His Son in me, that I might preach Him among the Gentiles, I did not immediately confer with flesh and blood, nor did I go up to Jerusalem to those who were apostles before me;
but I went to Arabia, and returned again to Damascus.

Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to see Peter, and remained with him fifteen days. But I saw none of the other apostles except James, the Lord's brother.

Gospel of the Sunday (Mt 2:13-23)

Now when they had departed, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream, saying,
"Arise, take the young Child and His mother, flee to Egypt, and stay there until I bring you word; for Herod will seek the young Child to destroy Him."
When he arose, he took the young Child and His mother by night and departed for Egypt, and was there until the death of Herod, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying, "Out of Egypt I called My Son."

Then Herod, when he saw that he was deceived by the wise men, was exceedingly angry; and he sent forth and put to death all the male children who were in Bethlehem and in all its districts, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had determined from the wise men. Then was fulfilled what was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet,
saying:

"A voice was heard in Ramah, lamentation, weeping, and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children, refusing to be comforted, because they are no more."

Now when Herod was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, saying, "Arise, take the young Child and His mother, and go to the land of Israel, for those who sought the young Child's life are dead." Then he arose, took the young Child and His mother, and came into the land of Israel.

But when he heard that Archelaus was reigning over Judea instead of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there. And being warned by God in a dream, he turned aside into the region of Galilee.
And he came and dwelt in a city called Nazareth,
that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophets, "He shall be called a Nazarene."

Hymn to the Theotokos

Magnify, O my soul, the most pure virgin Theotokos, more honorable than the heavenly hosts!
I behold a strange most glorious mystery: Heaven –
the cave!
The cherubic throne – the Virgin!
The manger – the place where Christ lay!
The uncontainable God whom we magnify in song!

Communion Hymn (Psalm 148 and 32)

Praise the Lord from the heavens! Praise Him in the highest! Rejoice in the Lord, O you righteous! Praise befits the just!

This Week in Church School

Today's lesson: St Constantine and the Exaltation
of the Cross

Questions to ask/review:

- Who was Constantine? How did he become Emperor of Rome?
- What sign from God did Constantine see?
- How did Constantine improve the lives of Christians? What was the Edict of Milan?
- To where did Constantine move the capital of his empire?
- Why is Constantine called "Equal to the Apostles" by the Church?
- Who was St. Helen? How is she related to Constantine?
- Describe the story of how St. Helen found the cross.
- Why is the cross so important to our faith?

Suggested Activities at home:

- Discuss dreams and visions with your child;
who else in the Bible had visions that changed
the course of history? Read the stories of Noah, Joseph, Moses, Samuel, or Zachariah.
- Make shields decorated with crosses and marching to "When the saints go marching in".
- Prayer: Lord, help me to conquer sin as You did for your servant Constantine.
