Announcements

➤ Everyone is invited downstairs to enjoy one last meat feast before the meat fast begins tomorrow. Thank you to our Orthodox Men's Group for providing today's Meatfare-themed coffee hour!

➤ Monday begins Cheesefare week. During this week, on ALL days (including Wednesday and Friday) all eggs, cheese, and other dairy products are permitted, as well as fish.

In the Russian/Slavic tradition, this week is called Maslenitsa. It is a pre-Lenten festival where blini (thin crepe-like pancakes) are eaten with a variety of cheese, fruit, and vegetable fillings, usually covered in sour cream or fruit sauces.

➤ Next week we'll have our annual Blini Luncheon sponsored by the St Nicholas Sisterhood. Delicious blini will be served with all the fillings and toppings, along with pancakes for the children. $8/ Adult, and $4/Children 7 and up. Children 6 and under are free. Tickets will be sold at the door.

➤ “Spiritual Self-Care: Warming Up Our Parishes” is a Lenten retreat on Saturday, April 13 at St Mary Orthodox Church (OCA) in the Southside led by Mother Christophora of Holy Transfiguration Monastery of Ellwood City. Divine Liturgy begins at 9:30 am followed by a Lenten brunch. The talk begins at 11:30 am and the retreat will end around 1:00 pm. The event is free and open to the public.

➤ The Lenten schedule is now available online at our website at orthodoxpittsburgh.org. Check the online calendar often for the latest updates.

Joseph Mell & (newly departed) Barbara Banosky; for the health of family and Michelle Bittner. From Charles A. Wasilko for the health of (sisters) Doris & Marsha, Jack Saban and Michelle Bittner. From Marsha Wasilko for the health of Michelle Bittner. From Doris Wasilko for the health of Michelle Bittner; Happy Birthday & Many Years to Chuck! From Tatyana Sechler for the departed servants, Polina, Galina, Slava, Bruce, Valentina, Andrei, Gina, Marina and Lida; for the health of Diana, Adrianna, Edward, Thomas, Christopher, Tatyana, Veronika and Yarolsav. From Margie Speth for the health of Brad, Meg, Kim and Lee. From Donya Yewisiak for the health of Reader Leonard and Michelle Bittner. From Lindy Hamilton for the health of Elaine Hamilton and Richard Hogya. From Alexandria Tirpak for the health of Michael on his birthday and support for Michelle & family; special intentions.

Thank you

➤ to Lindy Hamilton for donating the bulletins for the month of March in prayerful remembrance of parents Russell and Ethel Marie Hamilton.

St Nicholas Church will strive to glorify God through Orthodox Christian worship, sincere love and care for one another, and service to those in need around us.

Doing Lent as a Family

It's really important, I think, that as children grow into adults they take charge of their Lenten efforts. Ultimately, the fast should be an offering. In the liturgy, we offer up wine and bread and we offer up our hearts, and God transforms them. During the fast, we are offering up our efforts and our repentance and our hearts, and praying that God will transform them! Simply following the rules of the fast is what the Pharisees do, but making a heartfelt offering is what we Christians must do if we hope to participate in this amazing divine transformation. By inviting the kids to work out what their fast will look like, we begin to establish that this is their personal offering to God.

My younger children will add the Prayer of St. Ephraim to their daily prayers for Great Lent. They love the prostrations, and it's such a simple and beautiful prayer. We usually talk about the vocabulary words in the prayer early in the fast, but once they've got a few words, the prayer is so simple and direct that it just makes sense to them. I like to print up several copies of the Lenten Prayer of St. Ephraim to set around the prayer corner, though the kids quickly learn it by heart. The older kids might choose to increase their personal prayer rules more than this, but I find that St. Ephraim's prayer is beloved by all ages.

This year for the study portion of our fast, we'll be doing daily Lenten meditations together. The family (or just certain kids) might find daily readings too much, so you could skip some of them, or you could pick a different book. I think choosing to read one of the Holy Gospels is a wonderful way to study through the Lenten season, and you can pace yourself in a way that works for your family's rhythm and schedule.

We pray that your Lenten offering brings you great joy this year. May it be blessed! (Elissa Bjeletich)

Hymns and Readings for Today

Troparion of the Resurrection Tone 7

By Thy cross, Thou didst destroy death!
To the thief, Thou didst open paradise!
For the myrrh-bearers, Thou didst change weeping into joy!
And Thou didst command Thy disciples, O Christ God
to proclaim that Thou art risen, granting the world great mercy.

Troparion of St Nicholas Tone 4

You appeared to your flock as a rule of faith, an image of humility, and a teacher of abstinence.
Because of your lowliness heaven was opened to you!
Because of your poverty riches were granted to
you!
O holy Bishop Nicholas, pray to Christ our God to save our souls.

Kontakion of the Triodion Tone 1

When Thou, O God, shalt come to earth with glory, all things shall tremble and the river of fire shall flow before Thy judgment seat;
the books shall be opened and the hidden things disclosed;
then deliver me from the unquenchable fire, and make me worthy to stand at Thy right hand, O righteous judge.

Prokeimenon (Psalm 29) Tone 7

The Lord shall give strength to His people! The Lord shall bless His people with peace!

Epistle (I Cor 8:8-9:2)

But food does not commend us to God; for neither if we eat are we the better, nor if we do not eat are we the worse. But beware lest somehow this liberty of yours become a stumbling block to those who are weak. For if anyone sees you who have knowledge eating in an idol's temple, will not the conscience of him who is weak be emboldened to eat those things offered to idols? And because of your knowledge shall the weak brother perish, for whom Christ died? But when you thus sin against the brethren, and wound their weak conscience, you sin against Christ. Therefore, if food makes my brother stumble, I will never again eat meat, lest I make my brother stumble.

Am I not an apostle? Am I not free? Have I not seen Jesus Christ our Lord? Are you not my work in the Lord? If I am not an apostle to others, yet doubtless I am to you. For you are the seal of my apostleship in the Lord.

Gospel (Matthew 25:31-46)

“When the Son of Man comes in His glory, and all the holy angels with Him, then He will sit on the throne of His glory. All the nations will be gathered before Him, and He will separate them one from another, as a shepherd divides his sheep from the goats. And He will set the sheep on His right hand, but the goats on the left. Then the King will say to those on His right hand, ‘Come, you blessed of My Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world: for I was hungry and you gave Me food; I was thirsty and you gave Me drink; I was a stranger and you took Me in; I was naked and you clothed Me; I was sick and you visited Me; I was in prison and you came to Me.’

“Then the righteous will answer Him, saying, ‘Lord, when did we see You hungry and feed You, or thirsty and give You drink? When did we see You a stranger and take You in, or naked and clothe You?
Or when did we see You sick, or in prison, and come to You?’ And the King will answer and say to them, ‘Assuredly, I say to you, inasmuch as you did it to one of the least of these My brethren, you did it to Me.’

“Then He will also say to those on the left hand, ‘Depart from Me, you cursed, into the everlasting fire prepared for the devil and his angels: for I was hungry and you gave Me no food; I was thirsty and you gave Me no drink; I was a stranger and you did not take Me in, naked and you did not clothe Me, sick and in prison and you did not visit Me.’

“Then they also will answer Him, saying, ‘Lord, when did we see You hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison, and did not minister to You?’ Then He will answer them, saying, ‘Assuredly, I say to you, inasmuch as you did not do it to one of the least of these, you did not do it to Me.’ And these will go away into everlasting punishment, but the righteous into eternal life.”

Communion Hymn (Ps 148)

Praise the Lord from the heavens! Praise Him in the highest!

Today in Church School

oday's lesson: The Fall of Rome and Rise of the Byzantine Empire

Questions to ask/review:

- Name some of the tribes who conquered parts of the Western Roman empire.
- How did the fall of Rome impact the importance of the bishop of Rome (pope)?
- What does the word “pope” mean?
- There were 5 major bishops (patriarchs) at that time. Where did they rule? (Rome, Constantinople, Antioch, Jerusalem, Alexandria)
- With the fall of Rome in the West, what city became the leader of the Christian world?
(Constantinople)
- What is this Eastern Empire called? (Byzantine empire)
- Who was Justinian? What were his achievements?
- What is the Hagia Sophia? What are mosaics?

Suggested Activities at home:

Using books or internet, study examples of Byzantine religious art and architecture. Pictures of the Hagia Sophia and icon mosaics are helpful.
Discuss the similarities that can be observed in all Orthodox churches and specifically in Greek Orthodox churches.

- Create mosaic art with seeds or tiles.

Prayer: Lord, thank you for the beauty You allow us to create to glorify You.

Thoughts on Judgment

Christians, always rejoice, for evil, death, sin, the devil and hell have been conquered by Christ. But when all of this is conquered, is there anyone in the world who can bring our joy to naught? You are the lord of this eternal rejoicing as long as you do not give in to sin. Joy burns in our hearts from His truth, love, resurrection, and from the Church and His saints. Joy burns in our hearts all because of sufferings for Him, mockings for Him, and death for Him, insofar as these sufferings write our names in heaven... The risen God-Man Christ, the founder of the Church, constantly pours out this joy into the hearts of His followers through the Holy Mysteries and good deeds. Our faith is fulfilled in this eternal joy, insofar as the joy of faith in Christ is the only true joy for human nature. (St. Justin Popovich)

Don't be deceived regarding the knowledge of what will be after your death: what you sow here, you will reap there. After leaving here, no one can make progress. Here is the work, there the reward; here the struggle, there the crowns. (*St.
Barsanuphius the Great*)

The Saviour of our race, employing all means to free man from deception, has shared with us who obey Him heavenly and divine good things. But to the disobedient he has shown that there awaits them not temporal torments that abide for a time, but eternal and everlasting torments. (St. Photius the Great)

God gives His communion to all who love Him.
Communion with God is life and light and sweetness with all the good things that He has. But those who of their own will forsake him he rewards with separation from Him, which they themselves have chosen. As separation from light is darkness, so also alienation from God is deprivation of all good things which He has. But the good things of God are eternal and without end, so that the loss of them is eternal and without end. Thus sinners shall be the cause of their own torments, just as the blind do not see the light, although it is shining on them.
(St. Irenaeus of Lyons)
